ST. JOHN'S
International Airport Authority

Expressions of Interest for Board Opening

The St. John's International Airport Authority (SJIAA) Board of Directors is currently seeking expressions of interest from those who meet the qualifications identified below for representation on the St. John's International Airport Authority Board of Directors.

ST. JOHN'S INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT AUTHORITY

St. John's International Airport Authority (SJIAA) is a private, not-for-profit, non-share capital corporation that exists to provide a safe and efficient transportation facility at Newfoundland and Labrador's premier transportation gateway. The community's interests are represented through a diverse Board of 12 Directors, nominated by various stakeholders in the region. The role of the SJIAA Board of Directors is to guide the strategic direction for the Airport Authority.

QUALIFICATIONS

We are seeking experienced business professionals with expertise in information technology, business development or climate change/environmental management.

The SJIAA Operating By-Laws require that Board members be independent and residents of Newfoundland and Labrador. The independence requirements of Board members can be found here: https://stjohnsairport.com/wp-content/uploads/2022/02/Independence-Requirements.pdf We will only consider applications from residents of Newfoundland and Labrador who are compliant with these independence requirements.

SJIAA is committed to employment equity and diversity and we encourage applicants from all qualified candidates, including women, people of any sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression; Indigenous peoples; visible minorities and racialized people; and people with disabilities.
